Introduction

About CSR Asia Summit

The CSR Asia Summit is our annual flagship event, and is the most innovative and thought-provoking gathering on corporate social responsibility in the region. Participants have access to two days of seminars and workshops conducted by leading sustainability practitioners, which cover current CSR challenges and opportunities.

Why the CSR Asia Summit 2012 Beijing matters?

China is no longer simply the 'world's factory'. It has become a key market, a major economy, and is home to world-class companies operating globally. Along with these changes, the CSR landscape in China has also transformed. China's CSR community is growing; NGOs and other stakeholders have a greater voice and are playing a more important role, the number of CSR practitioners is growing rapidly, and the government has made it clear that business has a role to play in China's development. Attendance at the CSR Asia Summit 2012 is essential to understand the landscape and acquire tools necessary to support China's sustainable development and economic prosperity.

Details of CSR Asia Summit 2012:

Date: 17 September 2012 (Pre-summit training)
18-19 September 2012 (Summit)

Theme: Local Innovation for Global Challenges

Location: Pullman Beijing West Wanda, Beijing, People's Republic of China

Target number of participants: 700

Highlights of Summit 2012: CSR Showcase

The CSR Showcase is a platform for local social enterprises, NGOs and foundations to demonstrate innovative and sustainable business solutions for social and environmental problems. The Showcase will provide an opportunity for business to meet with and learn from local organisations via a "speed-dating" session. Business and NGOs will be able to meet and discuss potential initiatives or partnerships. 50 local NGOs, social enterprises and foundations will be selected to participate in a 3-hour session.

CSR Asia – GBC Charity Gala Dinner 2012

Rather than having a traditional summit dinner, CSR Asia will organise a Charity Gala Dinner on the first day of the Summit (18 September), in collaboration with our partner GBCHealth. The Charity Gala Dinner will include a keynote speech by very senior government official, and a performance by celebrity and traditional Chinese art performance. The proceeds from the Gala Dinner will be donated to one or two public health initiatives in China jointly managed by CSR Asia and GBCHealth.

Target keynote speakers for 2012:

- Bill Gates, Founder of Microsoft and Bill and Melinda Foundation
 - Mao Yu-Shi, Economist
 - Tang Min, Councilor of the State Council, Deputy Chairperson of You Change China Social Entrepreneur Foundation
 - Jet Li, Founder of the One Foundation
